

Does the future seem uncertain? Wish the world could go back to simpler times?

Fear not!

Now, as ever, God is in charge. He will not leave us to face the whirlwind alone. Come and see how to find peace amidst the storms at our upcoming Parish Retreat

Join fellow Holy Cross Parishioners at Georgetown Prep on Saturday, March 28th, for a quiet day of prayer and reflection, led by Father Philip Rosato, S.J. The theme for the day is from St. Paul:

LIVING FOR CHRIST – IN THE POWER OF THE SPIRIT!

It has been some time since our last parish-sponsored retreat. With the enthusiastic support of Msgr. Hill and your participation, we can make this a prayerful and memorable Lenten Saturday.

Here's the schedule for the day:

- 8:30 – 9:00 Coffee and Donuts (Figge Foyer)
- 9:15 – 10:00 First Reflection - Fr. Rosato (Chapel)
- 10:00 – 10:30 Adoration/Private Devotion/Opportunity for Confession
- 10:45 – 11:30 Mass
- 11:30 – 12:15 Lunch (Figge Foyer)
- 12:30 – 1:15 Second Reflection - Fr. Rosato (Chapel)
- 1:30 – 2:15 Adoration/Private Devotion/Opportunity for Confession
- 2:15 – 3:00 Benediction and Closing Prayers

Our Lord says, "Come to Me, all you who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest."
